This is not a Pebble trip . . . Wenona is very sensitive to this issue, I just want to make sure she has good information and we are all on the same page before she goes out. Thanks - Tami

Hi Tami. I appreciate the advance planning on this. From our last experience, I want to make sure this trip is not advertised as a "Pebble Mine" meeting, etc. This time around we have the benefit of an updated briefing paper on Pebble, which we can share with Wenona. p.s. - Don't forget I promised you lunch or dessert, as a thank-you for representing both of us at the Iliamna Tribal call on Aug. 26. (I think I got the better part of the deal that day!). How about lunch Monday, before the call? We could talk about our expectations for Wenona's trip.
